Thanks, Danny! It's been AMAZING working with you and Jeff on this. And I'll continue to help with updates for as long as needed, but if someone's indeed available this Thursday evening through Sunday, that would be wonderful—preferably West Coast folks, since things can run quite late into the evening/night.

Adding Paula so that she knows the other folks involved. And did you want to include Sherry and Barry, who also expressed interest? Just checking—totally your call.

Thanks!

Hey everyone,

We've been charging pretty hard on the Gold King Mine response. As you may know Tim Davis has been doing the posting to the site after 5pm Eastern.

He's going out of town this Thursday through Sunday, while I'm not sure if we'll have any weekend posts of data, it's possible. Could any of you all lend a hand at least on those days? We sure would appreciate it.

And, if you want to get more involved, like doing it more regularly, that'd be great too.
